The depositors of scam-hit New India co-operative bank staged a protest on Monday, demanding urgent action on the revival or merger of the institution. Protesters under the banner of the NCB Depositors' Foundation marched to the bank's Majiwada branch and submitted a detailed memorandum. MAJOR TWIST | Accused arrested on Sunday after SIT found their alleged role in supporting cartel apparently operating from MalaysiaPolice duo held for 'colluding' with

NAVI MUMBAI

In another startling development in the probe into drug cartel, which is apparently being operated from Malaysia, the special investigation team (SIT) has arrested two police men for allegedly colluding with the syndicate. The move comes after Gurunath Chikkar, 50, a builder and father of prime suspect Chikkar brothers - Dheeraj and Naveen - shot himself dead on Friday morning after being 'fed up' of answering to the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) and Anti-Narcotics Unit (ANU) during their investigations.

The accused cop duo has been identified as constable Sachin Bhalarao attached to Kharghar police station and Sanjay Phulkar working with the ANU, Navi Mumbai. The SIT was formed after the ANU nabbed two men on April 15 with imported drugs. The accused, identified as Ashish Gaware, 22, and Ahmed Ogl, 23, were caught red-handed on the terrace of a bungalow residence at NI-2 building in sector 15, Nerul, while conducting a drug deal. A third suspect, Akash Maurya, managed to flee.

During the operation, officers seized a total of 115 kg of traditional cannabis, 1719 grams of imported drugs. In addition to the narcotics, police recovered weighing scales, empty plastic pouches, parcel bags, a crusher and other packaging material. The impounded items are estimated to be worth Rs2.76 lakh. The police then registered a case against the arrested individuals under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act and formed a SIT under the directions of Navi Mumbai police commissioner Milind Bharambe.

"During the investigations, we found the role of the two police men in the drug cartel and we arrested them on Sunday. Further investigations are on and we can reveal more information only later," Bharambe said.

In the course of the investigation, the police had found that Dheeraj is allegedly running the cartel from Malaysia. According to police sources, Bhalarao and Phulkar are part of the drug syndicate. His elder brother Naveen is already wanted by the NCB, which issued a red corner notice against him a fortnight ago.

In a three-page letter addressed to the NCB, Gurunath mentioned his struggles of how he reached Mumbai and how he became a builder with hard work. Around five years back, he learnt that his elder son was involved in the drug cartel which broke him completely, read the letter. Gurunath added that when his younger son was named, it was unbearable for him. In the letter, he asserted that his wife and his youngest son had nothing to do with the drug cartel.

MUMBAI

A father-daughter duo, both senior citizens, lost Rs11.93 lakh to cyber fraudsters, who trapped the 65-year-old woman under the pretext of providing medical insurance to her father.

According to the FIR, the 90-year-old father is a doctor, while his daughter has retired as a professor from a Sweden varsity. On March 19, R Kaul from Versova got a call from an unknown number and the caller identified himself as Kuldeep Shrivastava from the ONGC office. He told her that the medical insurance coverage of her father, Dr C Kaul, had not been approved yet.

When she asked what needed to be done, the scammer instructed her to download a 'customer support' app, assuring that her father would receive coverage of Rs10 lakh.

Later, the fraudster asked the professor to transfer Rs4.82 lakh, saying the same would be refunded. Two days later, her father learned that Rs10 lakh had been siphoned off.

MUMBAI

The police have booked 45 unidentified people for allegedly vandalising West Centre, a commercial building located in Kandivli. A company (not named in FIR) of one Bhavy Shukla suffered damages worth Rs1.50 crore. The FIR, however, is silent on why the vandalism took place. On April 27, a mob of around 40 to 45 people gathered outside West Centre and threatened the security guard to ask the staff to vacate the premises. Subsequently, they began vandalising the office using hammers and sticks.

Metro 4 enters girder launch stage; schedule as per timeSweety Bhagwat
MUMBAI

In a major milestone for Metro 4, phase 2 construction, the project has now entered the crucial and challenging stage of girder installation. In a high-precision operation carried out at the bustling Gandhi Nagar junction in Vikhroli, engineers are launching a colossal 62.7-metre steel girder, weighing around 540 metric tonnes, at a height of 24 metres over the JVL-LBS Junction. The official launch, saying the same would be refunded. Two days later, her father learned that Rs10 lakh had been siphoned off.

This operation marks a significant step forward for phase 2 of Metro 4, the section between Cadbury Junction and Gandhi Nagar, which is on course to open by December 2026. Once completed, the line will connect Gaimukh on Ghodbunder Road through Thane and Mulund to Kanjurmargin, drastically cutting commute times and enhancing connectivity across Mumbai's eastern corridor.

The girder installation, one of the most technically challenging aspects of the project, is taking place in an extremely narrow space flanked by heavy traffic on both JVL and LBS Road. With cranes operating under tight constraints, the operation is being executed in three stages: a 30-metre span launched over JVL and under Metro 6, a 17-metre segment extending toward Vikhroli and a 15-metre portion toward Mulund.
